ARDESIA BIANCO | a Spacco

SIZE*3000mm x 1200mm*THICKNESS*5mm*SIZE*3240mm x 1620mm*THICKNESS*12+mm

Ardesia Bianco a Spacco draws inspiration from Pietra di Lavagna slate, a natural material extracted only from quarries in Liguria, Italy, whose use reached its peak in Italy in urban architecture of the medieval and Renaissance eras.

Featuring a compact surface with a silky-smooth feel, the Bianco finish draws on and transcends tradition, offering new and sophisticated options for use on interiors and exteriors. Delicate and highly sophisticated, it envelops the spaces it furnishes in a warm embrace, seeming almost to bestow a touch of familiarity.

SIZE*3000mm x 1000mm*THICKNESS*5mm*SIZE*3240mm x 1620mm*THICKNESS*5+mm and 12+mm

Queen of luxurious settings, with a modern or classic feel, the structure of Bianco Statuario Venato consists of a crystalline white with grey veining which makes it a world-class material.

Part of the I Naturali series, Bianco Statuario Venato is the ceramic interpretation of a marble that expresses the full beauty of the Carrara mountains, prized and used since Roman times in sculptural art for its translucent glow. It is particularly striking when used for flooring and cladding, although the exclusive polish of furniture created with this shade is also guaranteed to bring aesthetic luxury to any setting.

The Seta Series, just like the precious namesake fabric (seta is Italian for silk), takes on a different colour depending on the light it reflects.

Seta Blanc (White) reflects the glow and delicateness of pure white silk with the added texture like soft threads across the surface.

Alaska: a color, a clear image of the purest, most boundless, and wondrous horizons.

Alaska is the shade of awe that illuminates, amplifies, and organizes spaces. It's the key to environments that are relaxing, free from excess, and that use white to harmoniously link different materials, fabrics, and colors, creating a sense of well-being.

The exceptionally light surface of Slate Alaska features subtle, irregular veining—a clear reference to the iconic structure of slate, the stone that inspires the collection. This timeless, universal shade exudes a surprising charm and serenity, enhanced by clean, essential lines and geometries.
